

RESOLUTION NO. 5/4/230322 OF
THE 8TH MEETING OF
THE 4TH CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
OF
THE NATIONAL RESISTANCE MOVEMENT

The 8th Meeting of the 4th Central Executive Committee of the National Resistance Movement Party sitting in Emergency Session at Entebbe today 23rd March 2022, hereby resolves as follows:

1. To place on record, our distinct recognition and warm acknowledgement of the sterling contribution of Rt. Hon. Jacob L'Okori Oulanyah (RIP), Speaker of the Parliament of Uganda, to the vigorous advancement of the Programs of National Resistance Movement;

2. To clearly recognize the vibrant functioning and meticulous implementation of legislative agenda of the Parliament of Uganda under the clear watch of Rt. Hon. Oulanyah;

3. To hold out his life and exemplary leadership as an example worth emulating, by the entire membership of the NRM and all Ugandan Patriots.

4. Pursuant to the provisions of Article 13(3),(a),(i) and (j) of the NRM Constitution and Rule 9(3) of the NRM Parliamentary Caucus Rules of Procedure 2014, the Central Executive Committee resolves AS FOLLOWS:

That the Central Executive Committee having considered the twelve (12) names of members who expressed interest for election to the position of Speaker of the 11th Parliament of Uganda and having noted the withdrawal of the candidature of Hon. Dr. Jane Ruth Aceng and that having interacted with all the candidates except Hon. Achieng Opendi Sarah who did not attend the interaction.

CEC having noted that the NRM Party has established a culture and practice of elevating the Deputy Speaker to the position of Speaker, even when there has not been any disruption and now even more when there is an emergency HEREBY recommends to the NRM Parliamentary Caucus the RT. HON. AMONG ANITA ANNET for endorsement as NRM candidate for the position of Speaker of the 11th Parliament of Uganda.

DATED at Entebbe this 23rd day of March 2022.

NATIONAL CHAIRMAN
